

Reconciliation and Island Communities

Join us for a zoom dialogue with Lisa Wilcox (Islands Trust Policy Advisor) to explore how we can honour and protect Indigenous heritage

November 17th, 7:00 – 8:00pm

Register here: <https://sfu.zoom.us/join/register/u5lpf-usqT8qGdZW4eZPnG154vySYKwik2Vl>

Lisa Wilcox is a dedicated professional with over 15 years experience in implementing reconciliation and organizational change, UNDRIP, and the TRC Calls to Action, along with engagement on land use, archaeological areas, cultural heritage and repatriation. She is a non-status Indigenous person whose mother was taken from her community by the Grey Nuns in St. Boniface Manitoba and adopted into a non-Indigenous family. Lisa was born in Skwxwú7mesh territory and currently lives in Lək'wəŋən territory where she works for the provincial government as a Senior Intergovernmental Policy Advisor.

Questions? Contact mary_kelly@sfu.ca

